RATIONALE AND PURPOSE OF THE QUALIFICATION
RATIONALE: An educational arena needs a modern manager who is effective and aligned to the competitive and global world. With globalization and the advent of the knowledge-based economy drive, some policies were formulated including the National Human Resources Development Strategy (NHRDS, 2013), National Vision 2036, National Development Plan (NDP 11), and the Education and Training Sector Strategic Plan (ETTSP, 2015-2020). The policies strive towards redirecting the education and training endeavours of the country towards the realization of the knowledge-based economy. There is need for managers who are able to address structure, culture, operations and ensure effective delivery by the educational cadre. This would be realised through development of qualifications in the areas of Educational Management and Administration, specifically at Diploma level. The qualification will

REGIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL COMPARABILITY

BQA NCQF Qualification Template

DNCQF.FDMD.GD03

Issue No.: 02

The qualification was benchmarked against four qualifications: (2) qualifications regionally and (2) internationally:

International institutions

- Asian College of Teachers-India.
- Institute of International Teacher Training-United Kingdom.

Regional institutions

- Capacity Africa Training Institute-Kenya.
- University of Catholique de Bukavu-Congo.

Summary of the Comparability

Similarities were observed generally in the content of the qualifications compared with a variation of modules ranging from 10 to 15 modules. The qualifications were also comparable in terms of the target market, they were all geared towards upskilling educational administrators. In terms of assessments, there were slight variations in terms of the weightings for continuous assessment against final assessments, but all had components of assignments, projects, and final assessments. The duration of study is different ranging between 8 months to 2 years, and subsequently the credits are different as well as the entry requirements in the different countries vary. What sets the qualification apart is that it has a wider scope in terms of modules to be covered and graduates will acquire knowledge and skills in wider scope in modules such as change management, educational statistics and Work Integrated Learning. This implies that, the graduates from the proposed Diploma in Educational Management and Administration will have more competences than the benchmarks.

REVIEW PERIOD

The qualification is scheduled for review five (5) years after registration.
